

Chartres Valletta
Ravenna
Three Cities Event

Best-selling Author Kate Mosse in conversation with Philip Robinson

Monday 1st July 2019

7.30pm in the Assembly Room
North Street Chichester

Best-selling author Kate Mosse will be in conversation with Philip Robinson, former Vice-Chancellor of the University of Chichester. Kate will discuss the various cities which have influenced and inspired her internationally acclaimed novels, plays and non-fiction. Her latest novel, The Burning Chambers, is the first in a new set of historical novels spanning three hundred years of Huguenot history and Kate is now hard at work on the second in the series, The City of Tears, due to be published in May 2020.

The conversation will be followed by refreshments reflecting the three cities of Chartres, Ravenna and Valletta. Admission is £10. If you would like to attend please complete and return the separate booking form to John Wilton or purchase tickets from the Box Office at the Novium Museum in Tower Street, Chichester.
