

Friends of Ravenna

www.chi-ravenna.org.uk

'What Ho Giotto!

Stanley Spencer's Holy Box and the influence of the Italian Primitives'

A talk by Simon Martin

Director of the Pallant House Gallery, Chichester.

Photo Credit
Allun Callendar

Simon has curated many exhibitions and written widely on Modern British and contemporary art, the most recent exhibition being 'Glyn Philpot; Flesh and Spirit'

Simon is Trustee of the Artists Collecting Society and serves on the Fabric Advisory Committee, Chichester Cathedral and the Courtauld Association. He is alumnus of the University of Warwick which included a period studying the Venetian Renaissance in Italy.

Wednesday 15 February 2023 at 7.30pm
The Assembly Room, Council House, North Street, Chichester
Members £10.00 Non members £12.00

Simon will speak about the British artist Stanley Spencer (1891-1959) and the influence of Giotto (1267-1337) and the Italian Primitives on his celebrated cycle of murals for the Sandham Memorial Chapel in Burghclere, Hampshire, created following the First World War.

The Resurrection of the Soldiers, Stanley Spencer

Bruschette and a glass of wine will be served after the presentation.