MORE PROSECCO, VICAR?

An Illustrated Talk by John-Henry Bowden

Thursday 24th September 2020 at 7.30 pm
John-Henry is a retired priest. Part of his time was served as Chaplain to the Anglican Church of St George, Venice. He found the city a most remarkable place: even more extraordinary than the architecture and surroundings were the astonishing people who gravitated there. John-Henry's talk will be a series of stories about the people he and his wife met, and the wonderful, fairy-tale adventures they had in Venice.
