AN EVENING OF HARP MUSIC

Played by Keziah Thomas

TUESDAY 8TH DECEMBER 2020 AT 7.30

Keziah will be playing a varied selection of music by Vivaldi, Puccini and Duke Ellington, together with a number of other pieces with a Christmas theme. During the interval there will be an opportunity for you at home to enjoy a festive glass and a mince pie!

Born in London, Keziah Thomas began studying the harp at the age of ten and earned an ARCM performance diploma and solo debuts at the Royal Albert Hall and the Wigmore Hall whilst still at school. Keziah gained a Bachelor's degree from the Royal College of Music in London where she studied with Daphne Boden and was awarded the Douglas Whittaker, Jack Morrison and Marie Goossens Harp Prizes.

Keziah has appeared as a soloist in major venues and festivals throughout the world, including Tokyo, Geneva, Dublin and Amsterdam. Keziah's debut at Carnegie Hall in New York was described as 'stupendous, original and engaging'.
